Matthew:5: 38-48

GOD'S WAY IS PERFECT

The message in today's Gospel is a challenging one. Here Jesus is addressing the poor among his followers, those who have been persecuted for their faith and have little now by way of material things. He is asking them not to seek retaliation but instead to strive to be more like God, loving those who make life difficult for them.

It is not easy to love those who harm and shame us, it requires prayer. This is why the Lord's Prayer which we all know and recite regularly has such a powerful message for us. Loving, praying for, and forgiving one's enemy is an extension of Jesus' broader teaching about the perfection of God. Showing mercy to those who have wronged us is crucial in receiving God's forgiveness in turn.

Mahatma Gandhi, the great Indian civil rights leader, was very impressed with Jesus and in particular his teaching in the Sermon on the Mount. He tried to incorporate the wisdom of Jesus into his own life by asking his followers to adapt passive resistance in their struggle for independence. This was no easy task but one which he felt was the best possible way to bring about meaningful change in the world in which we all live.

The weak can never forgive. Forgiveness is the attribute of the strong.
(Mahatma Gandhi)
