Stroll in or Struggle in?

Today's Gospel brings home to us that entering the Kingdom is a question of struggling in rather than strolling in. To live by the Gospel of Jesus Christ requires commitment, not some half hearted effort that suits us. Following Christ is not about picking the bits that are nice and ignoring the rest!

There is a story told of a man who was used to every luxury and great respect. He died and when he arrived in heaven an angel was sent to bring him to his new abode. They passed many a lovely mansion and the man thought that each one, as they came to it, must be the one allocated to him. When they passed through the main streets they came to the outskirts, where the houses were much smaller and then on the very fringe they came to a house that was little more than a hut. "That is your house" said the angel. "What" said the man, "that! I cannot live in that". "I'm sorry" said the angel, "but that is all we could build for you with the materials you sent up!!.
