Loving Service of Others

Jesus spent time lighting the fire so he could cook breakfast on the seashore. It reminds us of the way many people each day spend time cooking for their family. The act of cooking is an act of love and care. This is Jesus performing the simple act in the dawn of cooking bread and fish. The meal was for tired disciples. Often in the gospel stories he talked about people preparing meals and serving them. He seemed to say a lot through meals and at meals. He allowed a woman dry his feet with her hair at a meal, and the big image of his first meeting with people was a wedding meal.

In cooking for people love is active. A mother might count up sometime how many meals she has cooked, and call them hours of love. This too is the mission and identity of Jesus. After death and resurrection comes the Spirit of love. Love given, love received and love shared. The breakfast meal will end with questions about love.

Anything real about the resurrection always ends in being sent by God on the mission of Jesus. He gives little instruction about the mission nor even what it may entail. But it entails being led by God. Life for Jesus is life with Jesus and with the grace of God. We are never alone.

Thought for the Week :

“Death is not extinguishing the light;
it is putting out the lamp because dawn has come.”
