Great Faith:

The Canaanite woman who came to Jesus was a pagan, yet she had more faith in him than his own people.....they would not believe in him unless they saw signs and wonders. Indeed they saw signs and wonders, and still refused to believe.

The Canaanite woman has to face many obstacles in order to obtain a cure for her daughter. She had to overcome her pride in order to beg; as a Gentile she knew she wasn't welcome among Jews; she had to overcome, firstly the apparent indifference of Jesus, and then a 'put-down' and a rejection. But she wasn't deterred by this; Why? Because of her courage, faith and as a loving mother her unselfishness in seeking something not for herself.

Faith and love are inseparably connected. Love is the expression of our faith.

Jesus, I trust in you.
