John: 4:5-42

Sharing Our Faith Story

A famous picture has the Samaritan woman looking into the well and seeing there her image – and image of Jesus. In the depths of the well of her life, is the presence of Jesus.

Depths

You need sometimes to go to the depths of the well...finding God in all things...where they affect us – love, pain, death, decision, joy, – we find God. God is near when we are near to ourselves, even in shame and sin. We thirst for meaning in life, for knowing we are totally loved, for community and companionship – this is the offering of God. The living water is the Holy Spirit. We thirst for inclusion – the disciples in this story did not want Jesus talking to a woman. So much of the religion of the time separated people – religion, tribes. In the depths of the well we are all equal.

In the well we see everyone and can rediscover our common roots – and a big one is, we are all children of God.....neither Jew nor Samaritan.

Mercy

And you find the Mercy of God in the well. As we go into depths of prayer and ourselves we are open to mercy. We may put all sorts of conditions on God's mercy and forgiveness – naming our sins, counting the numbers of them. God doesn't number sins but forgives them and covers them with his love.

Of the mercy of God, Pope Francis says:
"there is no sin or crime of any kind that can erase from the mind or heart of God even one of the children he has created".

At the end of the Gospel story for this Sunday, the woman goes into town to tell everyone what the Lord has done for her. 'He has told me all about myself, he has welcomed me, told me about himself.', she might have said. There was a sharing of life-stories, and for the woman a great sense of being accepted, the foreigner in the town.

Sharing Our Faith Story

Sharing our faith story and the story of our relationship with Jesus, and with the Divine, hits the heart. We can share truths about Jesus, or share about what the gospel might demand, but that will not lead to a change of heart in ourselves and those who hear us. Witness is what moves people. What each of us and what we do reflects our faith-life. Sharing about our prayer, our love of God, our doubts and difficulties, move us.

Our young people are influenced by what they see of their elders in faith, not only by what we say. They can put up with weaknesses and faults, if people are sincere. As with Jesus and the woman, he did not expect perfection, but an open heart. In prayer we get to know Jesus in our heart. We can read the gospel and see what sort of person he is. Like the popular prayer – 'Heart of Jesus, make my heart like yours'.

The woman of Samaria was changed by her meeting with the Lord; her account of this would bring change to others. Often the people we least expect give us a new look on our faith.

*Recall a person whose faith-story influenced you!

Lord, make my heart like your heart.

What is the Garment of Pain? The Garment of Pain is a simple way of drawing together the experience of pain of many people in a way that we may support one another in prayer. How does it work. During Lent you are invite to place a piece of material - roughly 18cmX8cm -in the baskets provided in the Churches. The cloth represents whatever your particular pain in life happens to be. We will remember in all our Masses throughout Lent the intentions of those who have placed their cloth in the baskets. During the final days of Lent the pieces will be sewn together to form one big Patchwork Quilt. During the Mass of the Last Supper on Holy Thursday we will place the cloth on the altar to symbolically unite our suffering with the offering of Christ in the Mass. On Good Friday the cloth will be draped over the Cross which is the focus of our prayer that day. It will also be used during the Easter Vigil.
