"THAT THEY MAY HAVE LIFE"

"Each year we are reminded, on Mission Sunday, that we belong to one family, The Church.

As Church, we seek to invite others to the Eucharist, which offers abundant life giving nourishment to all without exception, because ALL are God's children. Through prayer, reflection and generous sharing of our resources we witness to a core Gospel belief and value, that we are, each of us, stewards of God's creation, not owners! It is that understanding which causes so many Irish lay, religious and clerical missionaries to do the work of justice, building a world of truth, peace and love, as outlined in the Beatitudes.

Through our prayers and financial support, we share directly in that mission and fulfil the mandate of Pope Francis that calls all of us to realise that we are missionaries and evangelisers. Evangelisation begins when we realise that what we have, the Gospel of Jesus, is so powerful and beautiful that we cannot keep it to ourselves. We joyfully share it with whoever receives us with an open mind and heart. With pride in our Irish missionaries we pray for a continued stream of vocations to bring the Good News to all peoples. They need our prayers and support every day.

Christ himself says "I came that they may have life, and have it to the full".

Together, we can bring what he started to completion.

Be hopeful, Be thankful, Be happy, Be Missionary in your outlook.
