Palm Sunday of the Passion of Our Lord
20th March 2016

No 1538

Luke 19 : 28-40

In the temple Jesus rebukes the money changers who have turned his house into 'a den of robbers'. It is here that he spends his days in Jerusalem healing the blind, the crippled and the sick. It is here also that he gives us our two greatest commandments – Firstly, 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind'; and, secondly 'Love your neighbour as yourself.' All other teachings are based on these two commandments.

The Triumphal Entry

"Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord, Hosanna in the Highest!"

As Jesus rode into Jerusalem, the people spread their coats in front of him and greeted him with palm branches. His arrival on a donkey is highly symbolic of his humility and a sign of his coming in peace. Most of them expected that their Messiah would be a great political or military leader and not one who spoke of a spiritual kingdom beyond this world.

In this Jubilee Year of Mercy and encouraged by our Holy Father Pope Francis, we pray for all who will attend the ceremonies in our churches during this Holy Week. We ask the Lord to help them enter more deeply into the mystery of God's unconditional love. The colours of the Mass today are red and white, symbolising the redemption in blood that Christ paid for the world.

"Through his wounds we are healed" – Isaiah 53:5
