Mission Sunday:

Mission is done in hope. The farmer who sows seed, the baker who kneads leaven, must wait patiently for results. They must give up control. At the beginning, the outcome of their project may seem uncertain, unpromising, precarious. But the end result—large plants and many loaves —exceeds expectations. Today we join with God in sowing seeds of a new heaven and earth and look ahead, in hope, to the harvest of a new creation. And sometimes we even get a glimpse of that new creation when our mission projects bear fruit.

God already is at work among nations and peoples (Psalm 67, parables of seed and yeast), giving evidence of his will, salvation and judgment. The challenge of mission is discerning where and how God's Spirit is working in a particular time and place to bring peace and blessing and cooperating with it. Words are important to name what God is doing. Deeds are important to contribute to God's work.

*God has a mission;
not just saving souls, but bringing peace, salvation and blessing to the world.*

Thought for the Week

“Never get tired of doing little things for others for sometimes those little things occupy the biggest part in their heart”. Unknown source

A Huge Thank You

My sincere thanks to all the Priests, the Sisters of Mercy, members of the Parish Team, members of the Pastoral Council, members of the Parish Choirs, and Parishioners who travelled to Carlow for the occasion of my Ordination to the Diaconate on Sunday last, 13th October.

It was a most memorable occasion in every way, enriched by the presence of friends and family. Sincere thanks also to the wider Parish community who supported me in word, action and prayer during my years of formation. Be assured of my continued prayers for you all. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for your intentions as a sign of my gratitude.

Let us continue to journey together in prayer and thanksgiving imploring God's blessing and Our Lady's protection upon our Parish and it's people.
