Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion.
25th March 2018.

No: 1643

Mark 14: 1-15:47

Believe it or not the events of Palm Sunday in Jesus' day, was an echo of something that happened before!

Indeed, five hundred years earlier, the prophet Zechariah said that one day there would be a day like this one. That ancient promise was etched indelibly in the mind of a glory-starved nation. The words of the Psalmist had been a continuing national lament: "Be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am in distress; my eye wastes away from grief, my soul and body also. For my life is spent with sorrow and my years with sighing; my strength fails because of my misery, and my bones waste away." For half a millennium, they had kept an eye out for David's successor to gallop into town, assume the throne, and change their sad song.

Would this be the day? As Jesus rode into his capital city, tourists from all over Israel lined the street and cheered wildly. The faithful cut down palm branches and spread them over the road just as their ancestors had done over a century-and-a-half before in a rare moment of national triumph when the Maccabees finally completed the overthrow of the Syrian Antiochus Epiphanes. He had been horrible, just google him and see! The crowds shouted, "Hosanna!" which means "Save us, please," or "Save us NOW!"

But hope is apparently a fragile commodity. We know the story. By the end of the week, the crowds will have disappeared and be replaced by a few faithful friends gathered on a hill outside Jerusalem called Calvary. What in the world happened? Perhaps the answer is as simple as a loss of hope. Then, near the end of the week, Jesus gathered with the Twelve in the Upper Room to celebrate the Passover. One would think that these, who had travelled with him and known him so intimately surely, would never lose hope - they had seen him give sight to the blind, heal withered limbs, even restore the dead to life. They could never lose hope, could they?? Well.

Have you ever lost hope? There are many reasons why you might... financial or relationship worries. The never ending criticism of anything to do with being Catholic, the ongoing preparations for a referendum on the 8th Amendment of the Constitution... stuff that is important to practicing Catholics is being undermined and undervalued. Yet in the midst of what are difficult days to be a Catholic in Ireland, we journey with Jesus through Holy Week. We must keep our eyes on the prize... Sunday's Coming!

Yes, there is lots wrong with this world. But it is hope that we need to sustain us. Indeed, it is ONLY hope that gets us through the darkest hours. I have hope, the same hope that energized that Palm Sunday crowd. On this first day of Holy Week, we know there will be a Monday, a Tuesday, a Wednesday, a Thursday, and finally, a devastating, death-dealing Friday. But on that awful day we can think again and recall a special time long, long ago. Then with heart and soul and every fibre of our being we can shout, IT'S FRIDAY, BUT, PRAISE GOD, SUNDAY'S COMIN'!
