Silent Walk of Solidarity, Friday, 1st October, at 8pm

With the publication of the “Ryan” and “Murphy” Reports, many have been shocked and saddened by the level of abuse and cover up perpetrated by those with positions of responsibility within the institutional Catholic Church. So many survivors of abuse have to live with the painful memories of the serious damage done to them during childhood, by people in positions of trust.

We cannot change the past. However we can show our concern by remembering all those who were robbed of their innocence at such a young age. We are also aware of those who find themselves in a strained relationship with the institutional Church because of gender issues, sexual orientation or relationship situations. With this in mind, the Parish Pastoral Council of Naas are inviting the Christian community of Naas to a Silent Walk of Solidarity to show support for all those who have been hurt by the institutional Catholic Church.

The Walk will take place on Friday next, 1st of October. We invite the people of Naas to gather at the Workhouse Graveyard (between Craddockstown & Naas Hospital, parking available) at 8p.m. We will have a candlelight procession to the nearby lake for some quiet reflection and then finish by planting a Tree of Hope in the grounds of the Church of the Irish Martyrs, Ballycane. We invite people to join in refreshments afterwards. All are welcome.

Important Open meeting about Pastoral Areas; Naas, Sallins, Two Mile House and Kill

As most people are aware the number of priests is falling and this will become all the more pronounced in the near future. To reflect upon the inevitable changes that this will bring about and to help look at the possibilities around this for the future of ministry in our parishes, an open meeting is being held in the Church of the Irish Martyrs, Ballycane, Naas, on Monday, 27th of September at 8p.m. This meeting is open to people from the parishes of Naas, Sallins, Two Mile House and Kill and is one of thirteen being held across our diocese. Please feel free to come along to listen or enter into the discussion. For more information please contact Fr. Paul Dempsey at 045 876160.

Badminton Club on Monday nights at 8pm and Thursday nights at 9pm in the Naas GAA Club, Sallins Road. New members welcome. For more information phone Mariea at 087 6456842.

NAAS CONTINUED

Parish Weekly Envelope Boxes: New boxes for the period October 2010 to December 2011 are now available from the Church porches. Under recent legislation it is possible for charities to reclaim the Tax on Annual Donations of €250 or more. In the case of the Parish it is possible to keep a record of all envelope donations to both parish and clergy fund. In order to keep these records the parish needs to match names to particular envelope numbers. In order to facilitate this please write your name and address on the first few envelopes you use. Thank you for your co-operation and your continued support.

October Collection for the Priests of the Parish takes place at all masses next weekend.

Two Mile House Parish News

Day for Life

Sunday 3rd October 2010

Day for Life Prayer

Go forth, Christian soul, from this world
in the name of God the almighty Father,
who created you,
in the name of Jesus Christ,
the Son of the living God,
who suffered for you,
in the name of the Holy Spirit,
who was poured out upon you.

Go forth, faithful Christian!

May you live in peace this day,
may your home be with God in Zion,
with Mary, the virgin Mother of God,
with Joseph, and all the angels and saints ...
May you return to your Creator
who formed you from the dust of the earth.
May holy Mary, the angels, and all the saints
come to meet you as you go forth from this life ...
May you see your Redeemer face to face.
