Come to me all who labour and are overburdened
Matthew 11:29

days of remembrance and prayer: All Saints Day which commemorates those who "shout for joy and take their rest" in God's company, and All Souls Day which calls on us to pray for those who are still journeying towards His eternal embrace. These days also allow us to feel the pain of our loss, something we must do if we

In our Catholic tradition of bringing to memory and praying for loved ones who have died, we are professing our hope in eternal life and making present in the midst of our community those who, during their lives, have revealed a unique facet of God's love. We are also given the opportunity to realise that we belong to a community that is not limited by the grave, one which places us into the very heart of the Communion of Saints, and one that proves to the world that "Love never ends" (1Cor 13:8).

The month of November begins with two are to grieve properly, yet simultaneously remind us of the great hope into which we are baptised; the sure and certain hope of the resurrection. They invite us to give thanks for the many family members and friends who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith.

With grateful hearts we remember those who have loved us, those have given us so much and those who have taught us so much. These indeed are treasures that are not lost with the passage of time and are gifts of faith that we should aim to imitate.

Naas Parish Weekly Lotto Draw

The Second Year of Our Lotto Commences on Wednesday, 3rd December.

After a very successful year our Parish Lotto continues into 2015 commencing on Wednesday, 3rd December 2014.

Due to the support of our Parishioners and Promoters our first year has raised over €130,000 for our Building Fund. We would like to express our deepest gratitude to those of you who supported our Lotto by purchasing weekly or annual tickets. The Lotto has made an important and significant impact on the finances of our Parish and we would sincerely hope to have your continued support in 2015.

To date we have had a small but very dedicated team of Ticket Sellers and there are still many areas of the town which we have not covered.

If you could possibly sell a few tickets to your family, your neighbours or in your work place we would love to hear from you.

Tickets cost €2 each. You can also join by completing a Standing Order Form for €8 per month, or pay a Yearly Subscription of €90.

There will be a Promoter/Ticket Sellers meeting in the Church of the Irish Martyrs, Ballycane on Wednesday coming, 5th November at 8pm. Please come along to this meeting if you think you can help in any way and we will answer any question you may have.

For further information you can contact:

Any of the Priests; The Parish Office, Sallins Road at 879730;

Church of the Irish Martyrs, Ballycane at 895629; The Draw Secretary at 086 1635994.

Once again our renewed thanks.
