Facing the truth about myself...

This week we will see the establishment of a new Government in our country. One of the political parties involved in this had the slogan; "Leading a new team." The implication was that this team would be a "new beginning" for our country... we will have to wait and see how that works out! How ever this sense of a "new beginning" is important for us at all sorts of different levels in our personal lives. This week we begin our journey of Lent. It is a solemn time during the Church's year where we prepare for the drama of Holy Week. During the six weeks of Lent we are offered the opportunity of making "new beginnings" in different areas of our lives. We can reflect upon how our faith and actions interact with each other.

Jesus refers to this in our Gospel today. He talks about "building on the foundation of rock." What is the significance of this for us? The kind of foundation we build our lives upon will determine whether we can survive the storms that are sure to come. Builders usually lay their foundations when the weather and soil conditions are at their best. It takes foresight to know how a foundation will stand up against adverse conditions. Building a house on a flood plain, such as a dry river-bed, is a sure bet for disaster! Jesus prefaced his story with a warning: We may fool humans with our speech, but God cannot be deceived. He sees the heart as it truly is — with its motives, intentions, desires, and choices (Psalm 139:2).

There is only one way in which a person's sincerity can be proved, and that is by one's practice. Fine words can never replace good deeds. Our character is revealed in the choices we make, especially when we must choose between what is true or false, and good or evil. Do you cheat in an exam or are you "economical with the truth" when it comes to our taxes? Do you lie or cover-up when disclosing the truth will cause you pain or embarrassment? A true person is honest and reliable before God, neighbour, and oneself. Such a person's word can be taken as trustworthy. What can keep us from falsehood? If we make the Lord and his word the rock and foundation of our lives, then nothing can shake us or keep us from God's presence and help. Is the Lord and his word the sure foundation of your life?
