Returning to God:

As we go in life we become increasingly aware of how fleeting life is and how precarious is our hold over it. In spite of ourselves we become familiar with the thought of death. But this need not be a negative or morbid thing. In fact, it can be a very positive thing. Thinking about death can result in a true love of life. When we are familiar with death, we accept each day as a gift. And when we accept life bit by bit like this, it becomes very precious.

We are born in exile and die there too.

*As soon as we set sail on the great voyage of life,
we begin our return.*

When we die,

we do not so much go to God as return to him.

*Like homesick cranes that fly night and day
back to their mountain nests,*

So let all our lives take their voyage to you, O Lord.

For you have made us for yourself,

and our hearts will never rest, until they rest in you.

Only those who have flown home to You have flown at all.
