Speaking the truth...

Jesus was one who spoke the truth whether people accepted it or not. They were amazed and when they didn't like what he said, they questioned how a person of such a family as his could be so wise.

We can ask what we find hard to accept in Jesus' message - His willingness to forgive and give another chance to people? We may find some of his words challenging. The difficult sides to his message are growth points for us. We can offer to do our best and know that the help and love of God is always there.

Jesus' reaction to the lack of faith among the people was amazement, not condemnation. The next few years of his life would be spent doing his utmost to reach all these people with the love of God and the message of universal solidarity.

Following the Lord is following the way he lived and believing in his words. Our way of growing in knowledge of him is in reading and reflecting upon the Gospels and letting his words and his actions affect our lives and our feelings. We deepen this relationship through our prayer life and in the celebration of the sacraments, especially the Eucharist. May the Lord reveal himself to us as we try to grow in our relationship with him.
