The Banquet

In today's Gospel Jesus' story may be a bit far-fetched. Who would be so crazy as to turn down an invitation to a royal wedding? But people can be very foolish. The excuses that kept the invited guest from attending the wedding feast weren't all bad, in fact, in most cases they were perfectly good ones.

If each of us takes a brief look at our lives we could draw up quite a long list of things which we know, in our heart of hearts, we should do, or should not do, but which we refuse to look at. And we have no shortage of excuses.

The greatest danger facing us is not that we might abandon God and turn to evil, but rather that we might just ignore his invitation. To ignore God's invitation altogether is the worst form of refusal.

We are invited not merely as individuals but as a community to the banquet of the new People of God, namely, the Christian community. To accept means to admit our need and willingness to receive from others, to share with others, to associate with others and to collaborate with others. There is a streak in us that not only refuses the good, but can't even recognise it. God is continually calling us, as individuals and a community to a deeper and more authentic life, but alas, this precious invitation is like the seed that fell among the thorns; it gets choked!

We don't have to earn our place at the banquet; we are invited. God's call comes to us in many ways and at many different levels. A spiritual hunger is God's way of inviting us to his banquet.

Apostolic Work Society Next meeting will take place on Tuesday coming, 11th October at 7pm in the Naas Community Centre, Sallins Road.

Leaving Certificate History: As part of the modern revised Leaving Certificate, history students have the opportunity to undertake a research study in conjunction with their regular examination, accounting for 20% of their total marks. All Leaving Certificate and Fifth Year History Students are invited to a History seminar to help prepare for their special topic. It is an ideal opportunity for students to learn valuable tips on how to create a successful project with experienced speakers on hand including, a representative from the Department of Education, teacher Thomas Nelson and Local Studies Librarian, Mario Corrigan. This is the sixth such seminar and the emphasis this year is on interaction with a chance for students to ask questions and discuss problems they might encounter in choosing and preparing their topic. To highlight the importance of the seminar Professor Marian Lyons, Head of the History Dept., NUI Maynooth, will give a special address. The Seminar will be held in Naas Library on Saturday, 15th October 9.30—1pm. The Seminar is organised by Kildare Library & Arts Services, Co Kildare Federation of Local History Groups and Kildare Education Centre. For further information phone Anne McNeill 01 6271136 or contact Mario Corrigan at 087 9871046 or localhistory@kildarecoco.ie

St Joseph's Young Priest Society next meeting Thursday coming, 13th October at 8pm in the Parish Centre at the Church of the Irish Martyrs, Ballycane. Adoration from 8pm to 9.30pm.
All welcome.

Christmas Shoebox Appeal: Over the last twelve years more than two million children in 17 countries have received gift filled shoeboxes from Ireland. More than 10,000 boxes were donated by the people of Naas. The boxes are distributed to poor and needy children in communities, school, hospitals, churches and orphanages all over Eastern Europe, the former South Union and Africa. For many it was the only gift they received and it was the highlight of their year. If you would like to take part again this year we would love to hear from you. For further information please contact Adrienne 086 3948488.

COOKERY DEMONSTRATION DAY: A Cookery Demo Day will be held in Naas on Saturday 22nd October from 10am to 4.30pm in Aid of the Prader Willis Syndrome Association. (www.pwai.ie). Cost €70 per person to include dinner. Max eight people. Further details from Vourneen at 086 813 8821.
