ALTAR SERVERS TRIP TO CARLOW!

Last Saturday, 29th June, 16 of our dedicated team of Altar Servers went on a trip to Carlow with Fr Liam, Hilda, Marlon and Michal to meet with the Carlow Altar Servers. Here are some pictures and comments from our servers to give you a flavour of the day! (Pictures taken by Michal Mizgala)

"I loved the trip to Carlow. Meeting older Altar Servers was very inspiring. The Cathedral was amazing" (Eve, 9).

"I went with the servers to Carlow to meet Sr Dolores and the Carlow servers. We went to see the second largest art gallery, there was inspiration in each picture. We also went to see Carlow College and we saw Carlow Cathedral where we learned lots of things about the Cathedral" (Emma, age 9).

"I enjoyed my trip to Carlow. Fr Liam showed us all around the Cathedral and where his room in college was. Then we went to Eddie Rockets. It was a really fun day!" (Cathal, age 11).

"I enjoyed the gallery and also taking part in the game we played with the other servers from Carlow. I would like to go back to the Cathedral again and maybe one day I will be able to serve there! (Mimi).

"I enjoyed meeting the other Altar Servers in Carlow and playing a game with them! We had great fun singing with Fr Liam. It was a great day." (Jane, 9).

"We went to Carlow Cathedral and met up with the other servers and played games. It was great fun!" (Caroline, 12).

"I was excited on the trip, we had the opportunity to meet other servers. We visited the college where Fr Liam trained to become a Priest and the Carlow Cathedral where I saw a beautifully decorated Altar." (Leanne, 11).

"It was fun, we introduced ourselves to each other and played a game, after that we went to the Cathedral and it was beautiful on the inside" (Sinead, 10).

"When we arrived, we got a lovely welcome from Sr Dolores, we met the other servers and talked with them for a while. We went into the Cathedral and saw Bishop's chair and the Baptismal font and we said a Prayer. I really enjoyed it!" (Eleonore, 10).
