November Remembrance Masses

The third of our Remembrance Masses in Naas will be held at 7.30pm on Friday 20th November. At this Mass we hold in prayer all those who have died, and those who grieve for them, and remember by name some of those who died in our parish in the past year. Please join us in prayer via the parish webcam at www.naasparish.net.

Details of the Remembrance Mass for Sallins Parish will be announced at a later date.

If you wish to have your loved ones names included in the Altar 'Dead List of the Parish' please include their names in the envelopes provided in your envelope box or alternatively you can collect a 'November Altar List of the Dead' envelope available in the Churches. These envelopes can be placed in the boxes also provided in the Churches.

Fr Michael at the recent Blessing of the Graves in Two Mile House Cemetery

A Blessing of the Graves took place in our three Parishes: St Corban's Cemetery in Naas, Bodinstown Cemetery in Sallins and St Peter's Cemetery in Two Mile House, last Thursday 5th November.

More pictures of the day can be found on our webpage naasparish.ie and a video of the Blessing of the Graves will be available to view on our Facebook Page - Parish of Naas, over the next week.

We Remember...

At the rising of the sun
and at its going down
we remember them.

At the blowing of the wind
and in the chill of winter
we remember them.

At the opening of the buds
and in the rebirth of spring
we remember them.

At the blueness of the skies
and in the warmth of summer
we remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves
and in the beauty of autumn
we remember them.

At the beginning of the year
and when it ends
we remember them.

As long as we live
they too will live
for they are now a part of us
as we remember them.
