Stations of the Cross at Punchestown

'Our Synodal Walk'

Last Sunday afternoon over 300 Parishioners from Naas, Sallins and Two Mile House took part in a Synodal Walk, praying together the Stations of the Cross and walking in the footsteps of Jesus.

It was a wonderful afternoon of: prayer, togetherness, conversation and a cuppa to finish off!

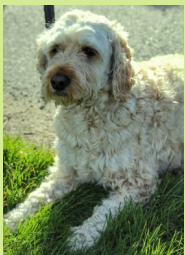

The sun shone as the generations walked together, the views from Punchestown were crystal clear, offering a panoramic view of the rolling hills.

It was very much a family day.

Well done to the Parish Pastoral Councils of Naas, Sallins and Two Mile House for providing such great organisation and hospitality for those who attended.

Along with our recent Synod meeting at Killashee House Hotel. Two initiatives facilitated excellently by our Parish Pastoral Councils.

Well done!
