Synod News

You may have seen coverage of the national synodal gathering last weekend. It was attended by Bishop Denis and the three diocesan delegates.

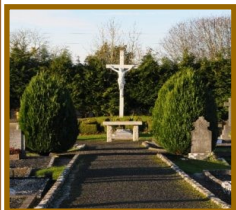

While we await the publication of the Irish Synod Synthesis, people in Kildare and Leighlin can read our local synthesis at www.kandle.ie and watch an iCatholic Special on it at www.iCatholic.ie. If you didn't have an opportunity to take part in this listening please be assured that this is just a first step. There will be other opportunities for bringing your voice and experience to our conversations about being Church together.

9.30am Weekday Mass in Two Mile House Church will return this week.

Naas Community Bealtaine Festival

The organising committee of the recent, very successful Bealtaine Festival would like to say thanks to everyone who supported, facilitated and assisted the Festival in any way. The closure of the Town Centre for pedestrianisation and enjoyment of the different events and displays was well received by the general public and it is hoped that no inconvenience was suffered by traders or visitors. We now look forward with confidence to the 14th May 2023 when the Committee hopes to offer an expanded experience to the local Community.

Sunday 3rd July: Cemetery Sunday will take place in the Graveyard of St Peter's Church, Two Mile House at 11am celebrated by Bishop Paul Dempsey. This is the first public gathering in three years to remember those who are buried in the graveyard. Everyone is welcome to attend, especially anyone new to the parish. Refreshments afterwards.

Please note that the Cemetery Mass is instead of the 11am Mass in the Church on 3rd July.
