Lk 10:38-42

A Message from Bishop Paul

Dear Friends,

It was a very special day for me to celebrate the Cemetery Mass on Sunday, the 3rd of July. It was my first real chance to return to Two Mile House since becoming bishop in August 2020. Two Mile House is very close to my heart as my parents and maternal grandparents, as well as many other family members and friends, are interred there. St. Peter's is also the church I celebrated my First Mass on 7/7/'97. I had the privilege of serving in Naas, Sallins, and Two Mile House from 2009 to 2014. I thank all those who organised the celebration: Fr.

Liam, Fr. Jackie, the PPC, the Liturgy Group, the Parish Choir, the ICA, and many others. I also wish to express my deep gratitude for the beautiful and generous gift of the Bishop's Crozier, something I will treasure knowing it is from the parishioners of Two Mile House. It will always be a reminder to me of my call to serve as "shepherd" in the Lord's Church.

Wishing you all every blessing of peace and joy!

+Paul Dempsey,
Bishop of Achonry.

Thank you

Your generous support of the Summer Collection for the Priests of the Parish is much appreciated.

May we walk in your ways Lord,
so that peace and justice become a reality
for the people of Ukraine and for all the world.
Amen.
